PRESS RELEASE: PLEASE RELEASE IMMEDIATELY

Artists Markets in Stamford

Stamford — Three Lincolnshire based practising artists Eve Marshall, Shalini Austin and Cathi Prince have got together to organise Artist markets and exhibitions promoting the extraordinary workmanship and talent they see around them.

Escartists events are a By Invitation opportunity for artists to showcase their work in a friendly environment, allowing customers and designers to meet and interact. The artist led events will be held at Stamford Arts Centre.

In 2015 Escartists have dates confirmed for:

- Artist's Market in Stamford Arts Centre Ballroom – Sunday 14th June
- An exhibition in the Stamford Arts Centre Gallery – Monday 26th October to Sunday 1st November
- Artist's Market, running with the exhibition, in the Ballroom – Sunday 1st November

"We create events to showcase the talent of people who take raw materials and turn them into unique works of art"

Escartist Founder Eve Marshall

Eve, Shalini and Cathi first met as stall holders at several craft markets in the Stamford area. Their like minded approach to their art as an expression of their creativity as well as a means to earn a living has seen the three working together as a team for last four years. They have organised and managed several artisan markets in Stamford and Oakham and a well received Artisan Exhibition featuring twelve local artists at Stamford Arts Centre Gallery in early 2014.
